

Murphy's Grand Irish Pub

Alaska Bound

Joe Korzeniewski, a bartender and party manager at Murphy's Irish Pub, recently returned from a trip to Alaska where he participated in the Mayor's Midnight Sun marathon as a part of Team in Training. Through a lot of hard work Joe was able to raise $5000, which all went to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. Many of Murphy's customers and staff helped Joe reach his goal- special thanks to all who helped out for such a great cause!

Joe's trip also included a camping excursion in Seward, Alaska where he saw such wildlife as a bear, sea otter, whales, sea lions, harbor porpoise, bald eagles, blacklegged kittiwakes, black oystercatchers, and puffins. For more information in taking part in Team in Training (which gives training tips and support for the race and the fundraising) go to www.teamintraining.org.

Joe's time was an impressive 1:39:40. For those of you who have never run a half marathon before- that's good.

Joe slept here. Lucky Duck.

Race for the Cure 2002

Each year Murphy's friends and family make an impressive turnout at the Race for the Cure in Washington DC. This year over 70,000 people took part in the event making it the biggest 5k race in the world. Among that crowd, decked out in Kelly Green "Meet Me at Murphy's" t-shirts, were more than 50 enthusiastic members of Team Murphy's. Thanks to everyone who participated in helping to bring us one step closer to a cure!

We Have a Winner!

The winner of the 2002 Bloody Mary Contest was Duncan Brown. Duncan has been the long-standing winner of this contest, which is held each year at Murphy's after the Race for the Cure in June. His secret recipe will be used as the house blend at Murphy's until next year's contest. Stop by and taste it for yourself!

Welcome!

These Irish Eyes are Smiling

Eddie and Ally, longtime members of the Murphy's family, were married on May 24th of this year. The happy couple has moved to Connecticut to enjoy married life as New Englanders for awhile, but have promised to visit often! The wedding was a typical Irish good time and they were lucky enough to have some friendly faces from Murphy's in the crowd- including a surprise serenade!
